

Diversity Data

Fountain Chambers does not discriminate unlawfully on grounds of sex, race, disability, sexual orientation, gender reassignment, pregnancy and maternity, marriage and civil partnership, religion or belief, or age, in accordance with our Equality and Diversity policy. The following survey of the diversity of chambers' members and staff was conducted in accordance with the Bar Standards Board's Rules and Guidance. All Members of Chambers and staff were asked to participate in the survey, a small number opted out of the survey by declining to answer the questions asked. The graphs below have been compiled by using the data supplied. The data is correct as of November 2015 and will be reviewed in a further three years.
