

Newcastle Law School Annual Lecture

Putting victims at the centre of the Criminal Justice System whilst balancing a victim's rights against the right to a fair trial

Alison Saunders CB, QC Director of Public Prosecutions

6th March at 6pm
Law Lecture Theatre

Followed by drinks reception

Alison Saunders CB, QC joined the CPS in 1986 and is the first internal candidate to be promoted to the position of DPP. She has several years of experience in prosecuting cases involving child victims and witnesses. She has Served as Assistant Chief Crown Prosecutor, as Head of the Organised Crime Division and Deputy Legal Advisor to the Attorney General. As Chief Crown Prosecutor for London she oversaw the prosecutions, following the London riots known as Operation Withern.

